The Court: Counsel for the respective parties are present.

The defendant has filed the present application being GA/4/2023 for dismissal of the suit on the ground that the plaintiff has not served the writ of summons upon the defendant.

Counsel for the defendant submits if today the counsel for the plaintiff is ready to serve the copy of the plaint along with the documents which the plaintiff relied upon, counsel for the defendant will accept the same and notice of writ of summons can be dispensed with.

Counsel for the plaintiff submits that he is ready to supply the copy of the plaint along with the documents relied by the plaintiff along with the plaint upon the learned counsel for the defendant by tomorrow.

In view of the submission made by the counsel for the respective parties, the plaintiff is directed to serve the copy of the plaint along with the documents relied by the plaintiff to the counsel for the defendant within a week from date. If the copy is served within a week from date, the notice of writ of summons shall be dispensed with.

Counsel for the defendant submits that he has already filed Vakalatnama on behalf of the defendant. In the event, if it is not filed, the defendant is granted leave to file Vakalatnama on behalf of the defendant within a week from the date of service of copy of the plaint along with the documents to the counsel for the defendant.

With the above directions, GA/4/2023 is disposed of.

The defendant is directed to file written statement within three weeks from the date of service of the copy of the plaint.

Let CS/53/2019 be listed on 25th July, 2023.
