The Court:- A prayer is made in GA/191/2024 that because of compelling circumstances, namely, ill health of Mr. Ashok Kumar De, one of the Joint Administrators, the other two Joint Administrators, namely, Learned Advocate Mr. Amar Nath Ganguly and Learned Advocate Mr. Indrajit Sarkar may be permitted to sign and execute any deed of conveyance, to sign the cheques for the bank operations, to execute and sign and file affidavits for the time being. Because of ill health of Mr. Mr. Ashok Kumar De, he may be exempted for the time being to do all these things. Medical documents are annexed with the application. This affidavit is filed by Mr. Ganguly as well as Mr. Sarkar. In view of exigency of situation, prayers contained in the affidavit are allowed. Two of the Joint Administrators, namely, Mr. Amar Nath Ganguly and Mr. Indrajit Sarkar shall sign and execute the deed of conveyance, sign the cheques for the bank operations, execute and sign and file affidavits for the time being representing all the Joint Administrators. It is further clarified that they shall be treated as acting Joint Administrators for all practical and incidental purposes to discharge the functions of all the Joint Administrators. Copy of this order may be communicated to the concerned banks for doing the needful. The matter will appear in the list on 24th June, 2025 for filing appropriate Report.
