(Old No.EC/253/2019)
IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

BEFORE:

Ms. Sujata Choudhury, Adv.
Mr. Om Prakash Singh, Adv.
...for the award-debtors

The Court: The award-debtor no.1 was supposed to be present in Court today. However, learned counsel for the award-debtors seeks shelter under perceived misunderstanding and seeks a week's adjournment.

It is evident from the order dated August 8, 2024 that there was no scope of any misunderstanding, however, with regard to the fact that the award-debtor no.1 was to be personally present in Court today for being examined.

Although I do not find any plausible reason for the absence of the said award-debtor today, as a last chance to the award-debtor no.1 to be present for being examined in Court, the matter is adjourned till August 29, 2024.

It is made clear that in the event the said award-debtor is absent on the returnable date, the warrant of arrest shall be revived.
