

In The High Court at Calcutta
Commercial Division
Original Side

CS-COM/752/2024
[OLD NO CS/149/2019]

LUX INDUSTRIES LIMITED
VS
VISHNU NAM

BEFORE:
The Hon'ble JUSTICE ANIRUDDHA ROY
Date: February 24, 2026.

Appearance:
Mr. Ayan Chakraoorty, Adv.
Ms. Sohini Mukherjee, Adv.
..for the plaintiff.

The Court: The last order dated February 17, 2026 speaks for itself.

The plaintiff is represented, the defendant is not.

The report of the office of Sheriff dated February 20, 2026 shows that the personal service of Writ of Summons could not be effected and the unserved copy has been received by the office of Sheriff on April 01, 2025. The report further shows that the service through speed post with AD has also not been effected and the postal article came back with the remark “Addressee left, D/L” on February 10, 2025.

The report is taken on record.

In view of the above, the plaintiff shall cause substituted service of Writ of Summons through the office of Sheriff by way of Newspaper publication upon compliance of all necessary formalities and payment of all necessary charges to be paid by the plaintiff as per the requisition to be made by the office of Sheriff.

The cause title shows that the defendant resides at Rajasthan. Hence, one newspaper publication shall be in a widely circulated local newspaper of local language and once in Times of India, all India Circulation.

The publication shall also mention the next returnable date. The plaintiff shall file an affidavit of service on the next date.

The office of Sheriff shall also file a report on the next date.

The matter shall appear once again under the heading “To Be Mentioned” on May 20, 2026 for further consideration.

(ANIRUDDHA ROY, J.)

Arsad