

OD-7

ORDER SHEET

TS/30/2023

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
TESTAMENTARY & INTESTATE JURISDICTION

IN THE GOODS OF :
DR. PRASANTA BANERJI, DECEASED
AND NABANITA GHOSAL & ORS.
VS.
RINKU BANERJI

BEFORE:

The Hon'ble JUSTICE ARINDAM MUKHERJEE

Date: 11th July, 2025.

Mr. Rupak Ghosh, Mr. Saunak Sengupta, Ms.
Mandeep Kaur, Advocates for the plaintiffs.

Mr. Sarvapriya Mukherjee, Mr. Aritra Basu, Mr. B. Kumar,
Mr. I. Basu, Advocates for defendant.

The Court: It is submitted by the plaintiffs that a notice to produce two documents have been issued to the defendant.

The defendant says that the same has been received only today. So far as one document is concerned, the original is supposed to be with their client, if such a letter had actually been written. So far as the other letter is concerned, the copy of the said letter is with the defendant but the original of the letter was addressed to the testator and the same should be with the propounder.

In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the matter is adjourned on the joint prayer of the parties and shall appear on 1st August, 2025 when the plaintiffs' second witness who is in the midst of the examination-in-chief should be present for being further examination.

(ARINDAM MUKHERJEE, J.)

pa