Defendant no.1 (in Item no. 23)

The Court:- The Learned Advocate representing the defendants submitted the desire of the defendants agreeing to submit to the process of mediation.

The Learned Advocate representing the plaintiffs stated the reservation of the plaintiffs to participate in the process of mediation for reasons peculiar to them.

This Court is of the opinion that the dispute been aged of four decades with many of the contesting parties to have been substituted on demise of the original parties, there can be a possibility of settlement through mediation if the parties come face to face before the mediator.

Let the matter be placed before the Member Secretary, Mediation Centre, High Court at Calcutta, whereby the Member Secretary is to appoint the Learned Mediator as per the choice of the Committee.

Next date be fixed on 15th May, 2026 for further information.
