The Court:- A supplementary status report is filed by the Official Liquidator, thereby explaining the depletion of the funds of the company from Rs.81,458.89 p on February 6, 2023 to Rs.42,39.29 p on April 23, 2024.

However, it transpires that the lion's share of the said expenses was spent on security expenses and legal expenses. The Official Liquidator shall file a further supplementary affidavit annexing the supporting documents to substantiate such expenses.

Insofar as the other affidavit filed today by the Official Liquidator is concerned, the same seeks to point out certain defects/discrepancies in the application of the petitioner for revival of the company.

A copy thereof is handed over here and now to learned counsel for the applicant.

In order to enable learned counsel for the applicant to come prepared on the same and for the purpose of filing of the further supplementary status report by the Official Liquidator, the matters are adjourned till August 22, 2024. An advance copy of the supplementary status report shall be served on the learned Advocate for the applicant before the next returnable date.
