1. The legal heirs of the original applicant have filed the present application praying for recording the death of the original applicant and for substitution of the legal heirs of the original applicant. The original applicant died on 3rd February, 2019 leaving behind the applicants being the legal heirs.
2. Mr. Chayan Gupta, Learned Advocate submitted that though the original applicant passed away on 3rd February, 2019 but the applicants were not having any knowledge with regard to pendency of the case and subsequently, when the applicants came to know, the applicants approached the present advocate and on search in the department, the Learned Advocate came to know that the application is pending before this Court and accordingly, they have preferred the present application for recording the death of original applicant and substitution of the legal heirs of the original applicant.

3. Learned Counsel for the Official Liquidator has not raised any objection for recording the death of original applicant and substitution of the legal heirs of the original applicant.
4. Considered the submission made by the respective parties. Perused the materials on record.
5. This Court found that the applicants have shown sufficient cause for not filing any application within the prescribed time and accordingly, the delay is condoned. Abetment order, if any, is set aside.
6. The department is directed to record the death of the original applicant and to substitute the applicants as applicant no. 1A and 1B within a period two weeks after puja vacation.
7. The applicants are directed to file the amended application, reaffirmation of the affidavit within a week thereafter. After the amended application is filed, the applicants are directed to serve the amended application to the Official Liquidator within a week thereafter.
8. Let the matter appear on 3rd December, 2025.
9. CA/6/2025 is disposed of.
