...for plaintiff

The Court:- Learned Senior Counsel appearing for the plaintiff points out that the defendant No. 2 in the admiralty suit was the charterer and the interest of the defendant No. 2 was represented substantially by defendant No. 1, the owners. In any event, it is submitted that the decree has since been satisfied and the payments have been duly made in terms thereof.

As such, the purported discrepancy pointed out by the department, to the effect that the defendant No. 2 had not signed the settlement terms, becomes academic. Accordingly, let the decree be drawn up as per previous direction.
