The Court:- Learned Counsel for the parties submit that an appeal is pending against the parent order, in connection with which the contempt petition has been filed, which is still pending for adjudication before the concerned Division Bench.

Learned Counsel for the parties submit that they have agreed that the matter may not be taken today to await the outcome of the appeal.

However, no useful purpose would be subserved in keeping the contempt application pending in the list since, in any event, the appeal against the parent order is pending and it would be inappropriate if the contempt is disposed of prior to disposal of the appeal.

Accordingly, let the contempt application, including the Rule, go out of the list for the present, with liberty to the parties to mention for inclusion in the list as and when substantial orders are passed in appeal or the appeal is disposed of either way.

Since the personal appearance of the alleged contemnor was dispensed with earlier, such dispensation shall continue until further orders.
