The Court: The learned Advocate General, appearing on behalf of the alleged contemnor, hands over a server copy of an order dated November 17, 2025 passed in the appeals filed against the orders under contempt. In the said order, the Hon'ble Division Bench has observed that since the said Bench is in the process of hearing and disposing of the appeals and it is understood that the appeals are being heard out, the Division Bench was sure that on a prayer being made by the parties before the learned Single Judge (this Court), in the fitness of things, the learned Judge will adjourn the contempt application till disposal of the two appeals. It transpires that the expression “applications till disposal” appears in italics in the said order.

In deference to the above observation of the Hon’ble Division Bench, since this Court is informed that the appeals are next returnable before the Division Bench some time in January, 2006, let the contempt application be listed in the monthly list of February, 2006 for passing further orders.

The alleged contemnor is personally present in Court today.

In view of the above order, further personal appearance is dispensed with for the present.
