The Court: Learned Advocates for the parties are present.

Learned Special Officer has submitted his report. In terms of the report it appears that the learned Special Officer has made publication in Ananda Bazar Pratrika newspaper about the proposed sale. Pursuant to the publication in Ananda Bazar Pratrika, the intending purchasers have submitted their proposal with the earnest money.

Upon comparison of the offers submitted earlier pursuant to the first advertisement and the offers submitted with regard to the second advertisement, it appears that the offer submitted at the time of first advertisement is higher than the others which is submitted pursuant to the second advertisement. The offer which was submitted at the time of first advertisement was Rs. 60,00,000/- and those submitted during the second advertisement is Rs. 50,00,000/- and Rs. 45,00,000/- respectively.

Learned Advocates have prayed for some time to come with certain instruction. Thus, this matter stands adjourned till 15th September, 2025. In the meantime if any further bids come to the learned Special Officer, he shall accept the same and reflect the same in the subsequent report.

Considering the accounts submitted by the learned Special Officer about the expenses incurred and the balance in hand, an on-account payment be handed over to the learned Special Officer of Rs. 50,000/-.

The learned Special Officer be paid a further remuneration or 200 Gms.

Let the report of the learned Special Officer be circulated. Learned Special Officer is requested to take back the documents regarding offer letter and the submission of earnest money with a request to submit the same on the next date of hearing.

Let this matter appear on 15th September, 2025.
