After addressing arguments for some time Mr. R.K. Jain, learned senior counsel requested for an opportunity for the petitioners to raise their contentions before the trial court. The said permission is sought, lest, the observations made by the High Court may stand in the way of the Metropolitan Magistrate countenancing such contention. We make it clear that if any contention is raised before the trial court the same will be dealt with untrammelled by any observation contained in the impugned order.
