Leave granted.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

We see no justification on the part of the High Court to pass the impugned order inasmuch as an application had been filed to implead the High Court being represented by the Registrar. The High Court in all fairness should have allowed that application. We therefore set aside the impugned order and direct that the High Court of Punjab and Haryana through its Registrar be impleaded as a party respondent.

The appeal is disposed of accordingly.
