in SLP Respondent-in-Person (Not present)

UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following ORDER

Despite service of notice, none of the respondents are present when the matters are taken up for hearing. From the office report dated 08th March, 2008, it appears that the sole respondent in SLP(C) No.7280 of 2002 is appearing in person. Even, he is not present when the matters are taken up for hearing.

In such circumstances, let a fresh notice issue to the respondents indicating that in the event there is no appearance on their behalf when the matters are taken up for hearing on the next date of hearing, the matters will be heard and disposed of finally in their absence.

Learned counsel appearing for the appellant in these matters is also directed to produce any documentary evidence to show that the
