Leave granted.
Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Let both the disciplinary proceedings and recovery proceedings may go on and concluded without prejudice of the rights and objections open to the parties. The time for filing objection, if expired, be extended for a further period of 30 days from today. However, the final recovery as against ..2/- the appellant shall remain stayed subject to the order to be passed by this Court. However, the proceedings of the Tribunal stayed is vacated which is also subject to this order.

So far the grievance of the appellant for supply of the documents not being made, though in reply it is denied, in view to eliminate the possible objection of the appellant, let one set of the said documents, as sought for, be supplied. We make it clear that this would be supplied to the learned counsel for the appellant within two weeks. List after four weeks.
