This Court on 18.2.2002 while issuing notice in the Special leave petition ordered to show cause why in case of upholding of the conviction the petitioner should not be awarded the sentence of death.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

In view of the concurrent findings holding the appellant guilty on proper appreciation of evidence placed on record, we find no merit to interfere with the impugned judgment. Further, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, we do not think that it is a rarest of the rare cases so as to impose the sentence of death. Hence the notice is discharged and the Special leave petition is dismissed.
