Heard learned counsel for the parties.

We find in the present case the disputed amount is so meagre which does not call for our scrutiny on the points raised in this petition. However, we feel it appropriate to order that the applicant if not deposited shall deposit the principal amount which may be withdrawn by the respondent without any interest. This deposit may be done within two weeks from today. The question of law raised is kept open.

The S.L.P. is disposed of.
