Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners.

In our view, these are not fit cases for interference at this stage. If the question of law which is sought to be raised in these petitions is decided in favour of the petitioners by the Constitution Bench of this Court at that stage, it would be open to the petitioners to file proper applications before the court where the matters are pending and the court would pass appropriate order at appropriate stage. The special leave petitions are dismissed.
