It transpires that after the order was passed by the High court in the writ petition observing that the petitioners have an alternative remedy, the petitioners approached the Tribunal, and the Tribunal on the objections/application moved before it, passed an order, a copy of which has been filed alongwith the petition. We feel, if the petitioners are aggrieved by the order passed by the Tribunal, it would be appropriate for them to file a writ petition before the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India raising the grievances, as sought to be raised before this Court.

The special leave petition is dismissed.
