Having perused the order of the tribunal and the order of the High Court, we are not satisfied that either of them has adverted to the relevant questions arising in these matters and have gone at a tangent and decided the matter. We do not want to advert to the facts or the contentions raised and pronounce on any one of the aspects arising in the matter as that course may prejudice the outcome of the case. Without stating anything on any of the aspects, we set aside the order made by the tribunal and the High Court and remit the matter to the tribunal for fresh consideration in accordance with law. By this order the original Applications shall stand restored.

It is open to the tribunal to pass appropriate interim order in the interests of justice and dispose of the matter before it as expeditiously as possible but not later than six months from today. The appeals are allowed accordingly.
