It is contended before us on behalf of the petitioner that the dispute in the present case was only with regard to the eviction on the ground of bona fide requirement. There was no dispute regarding the rent. It is submitted before us that the High Court had erred fixing the rent at Rs.3,000/-p.m. It is submitted before us that the High Court has not examined the question of eviction on the ground of bona fide requirement. In the impugned order there is no finding given by the High Court on the matter of eviction. The above plea does not find place even in the special leave petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the petition with liberty to move the High Court for necessary clarification, if so advised. Subject to above, the special leave petition is dismissed.
