O R D E R

Learned counsel appearing for the appellants prayed for four weeks' time to explore the possibility of an amicable settlement between the parties. According to him, talks had progressed to a great extent, but only on one issue they did not agree. Thus, the compromise could not be entered. The factum of negotiation of an amicable settlement has not been disputed by the learned senior counsel appearing for the respondents.

It will be an ideal situation if the parties settle their disputes amicably and report about it to this Court.

At their request, the matter be listed after four weeks, on which date the matter will be heard finally in case no settlement is arrived at.
