The main ground urged by learned counsel for the petitioners in these SLPs is that petitioners have actually averred in the writ petition that the Crew Baggage Declaration form dated 18th March, 1999 signed and submitted by the petitioners had not been placed before the detaining authority for consideration, and that the said point was urged during the time of argument before the High Court, but the High Court has not adverted to that point at all. If that is a fact it is for the petitioners to move the High Court in review. Learned counsel submits that petitioners would be advised to move the High Court in review on that ground. We, therefore, dispose of these SLPs without prejudice to the right of the petitioners to move the High Court in review on the said ground.

SLPs are dismissed as withdrawn.
