UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Permission to file SLP is granted.

The grievance of the petitioner before us is that without impleading him as a party in the writ petition, the High Court has granted an order of stay by reason whereof he would be deprived from reaping the benefit of running a fair price shop.
We may, however, observe that in this situation the petitioner may file appropriate application for his impleadment as also an application for vacating the order of stay passed by the High Court and we are sure that the same shall be considered by the High Court as expeditiously as possible. The special leave petition is dismissed with the aforesaid observations.
