Leave granted.

Learned counsel for the parties agreed that pending hearing and disposal of the Civil Revision Petition respondent would maintain status quo as on today with regard to possession of the property in dispute. The appeal stands disposed of accordingly.
However, the High Court is requested to expedite the hearing of the revision petition and dispose it of as early as possible preferable within a period of six months from today.

Leave granted.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

By the impugned order dated 25.1.2001 the High Court admitted the Civil Revision Petition No.216/2001. However, with regard to interim relief the Court refused and dismissed the Civil Miscellaneous Petition. Against that order, the appellants have preferred this appeal.

At the time of the hearing of this matter, learned counsel appearing for the parties agreed that pending hearing and disposal of the Civil Revision Petition respondent would maintain status quo as on today with regard to possession of the property in dispute.

The appeal stands disposed of accordingly.

However, the High Court is requested to expedite
