UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

The impugned order of the High Court only directs consideration at the hands of the State. We cannot read para

3 of the impugned order of the High Court as mandating the State to recommend the case of respondent No. 1 for grant of leave. The impugned order is totally an innocuous order and apparently for this reason the State was not put to notice by the High Court before passing the order.

We do not find any reason to interfere with the impugned order of the High Court.

The special leave petition is dismissed.
