UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

After making some submissions, Shri Prashant Bhushan, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, made a request for an adjournment to enable his client to bring out appropriate amendment to challenge the orders issued by the Chancellor after 07.12.2012 i.e. the date on which the High Court passed the impugned order.

Shri Harish N.Salve, learned senior counsel appearing for the State of Bihar submits that he has advised the State Government to file special leave petition against the impugned order.

Dr. Rajeev Dhawan and Shri K.K.Venugopal, learned senior counsel appearing for some of the private respondents submit that the petitioner does not have the locus standi to challenge the order of the High Court and the consequential action taken by the Governor because he had given up his right to be considered for appointment as a Vice-Chancellor.

The objection raised by Dr.Rajeev Dhawan and Shri K.K.Venugopal will be considered at the time of hearing of the special leave petition for the purpose of admission or final disposal.

However, at this stage, we deem it proper to accept the prayer made by Shri Bhushan and allow his client two weeks' time to file appropriate amendment.

Put up on 18.03.2013.
