O R D E R

By order dated 29. 8. 2 0 0 7 , it was mentioned that since there was no representation for the petitioner, and that, though sufficient opportunity was granted to the petitioner for taking steps, the petitioner has failed to do so.

It was further directed that if steps were not taken within two weeks from that day, steps would be initiated for non- prosecution.

Today also, it is reported that steps have not been taken.

Therefore, place the matter before the Hon'ble Judge in Chambers with an office report for default on the petitioner.
