These I.As. have been filed by the several applicants for clarification of our order/judgment. The Review Petitions have been filed bringing in certain more materials facts. After hearing the learned Solicitor General for the State and also the applicants for the I.As., we are not inclined to entertain either. The Review Petitions as well as I.As. are dismissed. If any person not being a party to the same is aggrieved by any order of this Government pursuant to our judgment, it would be fresh cause of action which he can assail in an appropriate forum.

(In Review Petitions) Needless to mention, judgment of this Court would bind the parties in the proceedings.
