Heard learned counsel for the parties. We are not inclined to interfere with the order under challenge. However, we make it clear that if the question of want of sanction is raised before the trial court, the same will be considered on merits without being influenced by the observations in the order under challenge. The SLP is dismissed.

In view of the order passed above, separate order is necessary in SLP(C)No.1309/2001. It is dismissed accordingly.
