Upon hearing submissions on behalf of the parties, we do feel that expeditious disposal of the special leave petition at the admission stage would sub-serve the interest of justice. The status quo as of today however be maintained and the civil suit No. 76/99 pending before the learned Civil Judge, Senior Division, 9th Court, Alipore be expedited. It is desired that the suit be disposed of with utmost expedition and preferably within a period of 18 months. It is, however, clarified that the property in question shall not be alienated until the disposal of the suit.

Special leave petition is disposed of accordingly.
