The petitioner had filed the application in person for cancellation of bail granted by the High Court. On the last occasion when the petitioner appeared in person certain defects had been pointed and the petitioner was directed to remove the defects but the petitioner never took opportunity of removing the defects as a result of which defects still remain. The petitioner knows about the date of listing of the matter today. Since he was present in Court on the last occasion and yet he does not make his appearance today in these circumstances, the SLP stands rejected.
