record, we are of the considered opinion that there is no merit and substance in these special leave petitions, which are hereby dismissed.

However, looking to the facts and features of the case and also keeping in mind that the petitioners are carrying on their business from the suit shops, we deem it fit and proper to grant one year's time to the petitioners to vacate the said shop/shops and handover its peaceful and vacant possession to the respondent subject to each of the petitioners filing usual undertaking in the Court within four weeks from today.
