However, although the aforesaid plea was specifically raised, the High Court has not adverted to the same and treated the writ petitions filed by the petitioners merely for seeking an extension in time for restructuring. In our opinion, the aforesaid issue cannot be examined by us in the present special leave petitions in view of the observations made by the High Court. However, we grant liberty to the petitioners to approach the High Court by way of review and to point out the submissions made before us.

The special leave petitions are dismissed with liberty as above.
