O R D E R

The learned counsel for the petitioners produced for our perusal a communication dated 10th March, 2004 from the Observer to the petitioners herein. We do not think that any documents which are relevant including the Bikri Parchees (i.e. sales slips) can be withheld from being inspected by the petitioners. If the documents are in custody of the Receivers, the Observer should arrange for their inspection by the petitioners. If any further direction is called for the petitioners are at liberty to seek the same from the trial court. The contempt petition is dismissed.
