O R D E R

The short question involved in this appeal is th at the appellant filed a revision petition before the District and Sessions Judge which has been dismissed.

Thereafter, 482 Cr.P.C. petition has been preferred before the High Court which is in the nature of second revision petition. The High Court has rejected revis ion application as not maintainable because there can never be a second revision petition as contained in Sections 392(2) and 399(3) Cr.P.C. In this view of the matter, we see no reason to interfere with the High Court order which cannot be said to be unjustified. This appeal is, accordingly, dismissed.
