Heard Senior Counsel for the parties.

We do not find any good ground to interfere with the impugned order. However, we would like to add that the observations made in the impugned order are confined for the purpose of the said order. The appeals stated to be pending shall be decided on their own merits. The petitioners shall furnish the list of sub-operators and subscribers, as directed in the impugned order. In case there is any dispute about the subscribers, that is the matter which would be examined in the main proceedings either in the suit or in the appeal, as the case may be.

The special leave petitions are disposed of accordingly.
