UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The principal ground on which this SLP is filed is that the claim of the respondent-workman was raised for the first time after 13 years and this question even though specifically raised by the petitioner before the High Court as ground No.1 in the SLP and the same was not considered by the High Court. If that be so, the appropriate remedy for the petitioner is to approach the High Court by way of a review petition and point out this omission. Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw this petition to approach the High Court. Permission prayed for is granted. The special leave petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
