IA NO. 3 IN CIVIL APPEAL NO. 2478 OF 2008

O R D E R

According to the counsel for the appellant, the dispute in this case now stands fully covered by two decisions of this Court in Girnar Traders v. State of Maharashtra & Ors., (2007) 7 SCC 555 and another reported in (2011) 1 Scale 223. He, therefore, seeks permission to withdraw the civil appeals with liberty to the appellant to request the High Court, where his Writ Petition Nos. 4524 and 4525 of 2006 remain pending, to dispose of those writ petitions in terms of the decision of this Court.

The civil appeals are dismissed as withdrawn. As the dispute between the parties is said to be covered by decisions of this Court, the High Court may take up the pending writ petitions and dispose them of at an early date.

It is made clear that we are not making any comment on the veracity of the statement made before us.

No orders need be passed on the interlocutory applications.
