UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Looking to the averments in the petition which are very broadly stated, it is not possible for this Court to monitor the entire gamut of the protection to be given to the whistle blowers, particularly in the absence of instances being given in the petition. In the circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw this writ petition.
Liberty is, however, given to the petitioners to move the concerned High Court, if so advised.

make it clear that the petition should give specific instances before invoking the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution.

The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed as withdrawn.
