No interference is called for in the following circumstances:
There is an order of interim suspension and notice dated 30th January, 2001 which was passed at the ad interim stage of a civil miscellaneous petition, which is still pending. In the event that, at the final hearing of that petition, the present petitioners succeed, they shall be entitled to seek the vacation or modification of the order under challenge.

The special leave petition is disposed of accordingly.
