UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Learned counsel for the petitioner, having obtained instructions, state that the petitioner's own premises are under construction and the construction would take a reasonable time and as soon as the construction is completed, the petitioner would vacate the suit premises. He submits that the construction is likely to be completed by 31st December, 2004. The submission made is reasonable and ordinarily to be accepted. We allow the petitioner liberty of making that prayer to the High Court which may grant the prayer after hearing the landlord-respondent. Subject to that observation, the special leave petition is dismissed.
