Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner has surrendered.

The petitioner has been convicted for an offence under Section 304-A of the IPC. Challenge as to the merits of the conviction was given up before the High Court. On the question of sentence the High Court has already taken a lenient view. We do not find it a case fit for granting further relief to the petitioner. The special leave petition is dismissed.
