During the course of hearing, Mrs. K. Sarada Devi, learned counsel appearing for the wife, submitted that considering the nature of the matter under dispute between the husband and wife, in all fairness the matter should be compromised between the parties. She prayed for some time to effect a compromise in the matter, if at all possible. The suggestion is acceptable to the Court and in that view of the matter, Mr. P.R. Ramasesh, learned counsel appearing for the husband, also requests to obtain necessary instruction from his client so that the settlement can be arrived at between the parties herein.

Let this matter be stand over for a period of eight weeks which the parties are directed to obtain necessary instructions.
