

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPEAL NO. 3468 OF 2012

Kimti Lal SharmaAppellant

Versus

The Union of India & Anr. ... Respondents

O R D E R

This appeal has been preferred against the impugned judgment and order dated 25.1.2012 passed by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, New Delhi (hereinafter called "the Commission") in Consumer Complaint No.247 of 2011.

The appellant claimed that he had invented technology for Hydro Power Project which may resolve problems in electricity production etc. He made an application to Respondent No. 2 in 2008 to get it patented under Patents Rules, 2003 read with The Patent Act, 1970. As his application was not dealt with, he approached the Commission by filing the application which has been dismissed as not maintainable.

We have asked the appellant-in-person how such an application was maintainable before the Commission under the Consumer Protection Act. He was not able to explain the meaning of maintainability and could not render any assistance to satisfy the Court that the complaint was maintainable. We do not see any cogent reason to interfere with the impugned judgment.

The appeal lacks merit and is, accordingly, dismissed. The appellant is at liberty to approach the appropriate forum.
