O R D E R

Heard the petitioner, appearing in person and learned counsel for the respondent.

It is admitted at the Bar that the father of the petitioner is in Defence service and presently posted in Delhi. That being the position, we do not think that the petitioner will have any difficulty in contesting the case filed by her husband at Delhi. However, if the petitioner is required to travel from any other place to Delhi for the purposes of contesting the case, the expenses of her traveling shall be borne by the husband.

We dismiss this transfer petition for the present. However, the petitioner would have the liberty of approaching this Court again in the event of any new ground for transfer being available.

No order as to the costs.
