The contentions raised in the writ petition which have now stand decided by the impugned judgment can still be raised by the petitioner in the trial court when the arguments are heard at the final stage. It is open to the petitioner to canvass for those contentions untrammelled by the impugned judgment. When this was pointed out to Mr. Jaspal Singh, learned senior counsel for the petitioner he said that the Special Leave Petition can be dismissed as withdrawn. Accordingly, Special Leave Petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
