UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Application for intervention is allowed.

The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State in the High Court had made a statement that the petitioner has already joined the investigation and his custodial interrogation was not required. Despite this statement made by the learned counsel for the State, the High Court rejected the bail application. In our view, since the petitioner has already joined investigation and his personal custody is not required by the police, he is entitled to the grant of bail.

Accordingly, interim order of this Court dated 18th of April, 2005 granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner is made absolute.

The special leave petition stands disposed of accordingly.
