O R D E R

- 1) Delay condoned.
- 2) Permission to file special leave petition is granted.
- 3) Leave granted.
- 4) The present batch of appeals, preferred either by the State Government or by the private persons, is related to a judgment delivered in approximately about 132 matters which were disposed of vide order dated 19.03.2025 in F.A.O No. 509/2014 by the High Court.
- 5) The nature of directions as issued by the High Court is necessary to refer here which is reproduced as under:

"6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and after going through the materials available on record, it is found that all the present batch of appeals have been filed either by the State-Appellants where the Tribunal has allowed the claim of the concerned employees and/or Institutions to get the benefit of Grant-in-Aid under OLA Order, 1994 and by the employees and/or institutions where such claim has been rejected by the Tribunal placing reliance on the decision in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati as cited(supra).

6.1. This Court after going through the decision in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati, though is of the view that no such claim after repealing of the Grant-in-Aid Order, 1994 is entertainable, but placing reliance on the RTI information provided by the Directorate of Secondary Education vide his letter dated 21.01.2013, it is view of this Court that in those cases where the recommendation has been made in favour of Secondary schools prior to repealing of the GIA Order, decision in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati cannot be treated as a complete bar absolutely.

6.2. Not only that similar claim allowed by the Tribunal and upheld by this Court, on the face of the decision in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati, was not interfered with by the Hon'ble Apex Court while dismissing appeals preferred against those orders by the State. It is also found that Review Petitions and/or Curative Petitions filed seeking review of the earlier order passed by the Apex Court relying on the decision in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati, was also not entertained by the Apex Court. It is also found that similar claim allowed by this Court in FAO No.949 of 2019 and FAO No.602 of 2019 was not interfered with by the Apex Court while dismissing the Special Leave Petitions vide order dated 11.01.2024 and 19.03.2024.

6.3. Therefore, it is the view of this Court that decision in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati cannot be taken as a complete Bar in those cases where the employees and/or institutions were otherwise eligible to get the benefit of grant-in-aid under GIA Order, 1994 and recommendation has been made by the respective Directorate prior to such repealing of GIA Order, 1994 in respect of unaided Schools, Girls Schools or Higher Secondary Schools and Colleges.

6.4. In view of the aforesaid analysis, this Court while is not inclined to interfere with the judgments of the tribunal wherein claim of the employees and/or institutions has been allowed and dismiss the appeals accordingly, but is inclined to quash the impugned judgments wherein such claim of the concerned employees and/or institutions has been rejected by the Tribunal by allowing the appeals. However, such dismissal & allowing of the appeals is with the condition that, claim of the concerned employees and/or institutions in the present batch of appeals will be subject to verification to be made by the concerned Directorate dealing with the issue. The State Authorities are directed to verify as to whether prior to repealing of the Grant-in-Aid Order, 1994, which was notified in the Gazette on 05.02.2004, claim of the employees and/or institutions in the present batch of appeals was recommended by the concerned Directorate. This Court also directs the State authorities to take into consideration the benefit of Grant-in-aid under GIA Order, 1994 extended after dismissal of the appeal filed by the State in FAG No.949 of 2019 and FAG No.602 of 2019 and so also the orders passed by the Apex Court in various Review Petitions as well as Curative Petitions on the face of the order passed in the case of Anup Kumar Senapati and extension of the benefit under GIA Order, 1994. On such verification and appreciation of the orders passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court, appropriate order be passed to extend the benefit of Grant-in-Aid under GIA Order, 1994 in favour of the employees and/or institutions in the present batch of appeals. This Court directs the State authorities to complete the entire exercise, within a period of 6 (six) months from the date of receipt of this order. The issue framed is accordingly decided." (Emphasis Supplied)

6) After perusal of the nature of the said direction, it is apparent that the judgment of *State of Odisha and Another v. Anup Kumar Senapati and another*¹ has been considered by the High Court in the impugned order. Moreover, the document, in particular the RTI information provided by the Directorate of Secondary Education vide letter dated 21.01.2013 has also been considered. On Consideration of the said RTI information, the Court, as observed in para 6.3 therein, was of the view that the judgment of Anup Kumar Senapati (supra) does not create complete and absolute bar. Moreover, it has also been taken note of by the Court that in other similar cases, against the orders passed by the Tribunal and the High Court, various Special Leave Petitions for example Special Leave Petition (Civil) Nos. 19387-19388 of 2019 have been dismissed. Thereafter, Review Petition (Civil) Diary No. 46612 of 2019 and Curative Petition (Civil) Nos. 252-253 of 2021 have also been dismissed by this Court. The Court has also considered that various Special Leave Petitions filed against orders of the High Court affirming the benefit of grant in aid have been dismissed. In this view, the nature of directions issued by the High Court was that the judgment of Anup Kumar Senapati (supra) would not be treated as absolute bar. It was further directed that the employees and institutions, if otherwise eligible for the benefit of grant in aid under the GIA order 1994 and where recommendations have been made by the respective Directorate prior to such repealing of GIA Order 1994 in respect of unaided Schools, Girls Schools, Higher Secondary Schools and Colleges, then in that situation, the verification is to be made by the State authorities taking note of these aspects and upon such verification and appreciation of the orders passed by the Courts, authorities were directed to pass appropriate orders and to complete such exercise within a period of six months.

7) In our view, the direction as issued by the High Court is completely in consonance with the reasoning as specified therein and the discretion has been left with the State to consider all the aspects as indicated hereinabove including the nature of the orders which have been passed by this Court in similar matters and to pass necessary orders subject to verification. In this light, we are not inclined to interfere.

8) Another reason is that numerous Special Leave Petitions, more than approximately 60 in number, filed before us and other coordinate Benches of this Court, have already been dismissed. Even after such dismissal, on insistence of learned Advocate General for the State, we have heard him at length and after hearing, we are not inclined to take a different view than that taken by us in previous other Special Leave Petitions as well as by other coordinate Benches of this Court. Accordingly, with the aforesaid, we are not inclined to entertain the present appeals filed by the State and are accordingly dismissed. As far as the appeals filed by the private persons are concerned, their cases shall also be dealt with in terms of the directions as issued by the High Court in similar manner and accordingly, such appeals stand disposed of.

9) Since the matters were pending before this Court after passing of the impugned order, therefore, the exercise as directed by the High Court be done by the State within six months from the date of this order.
